

TRAILS & TREATS

10 tiny adventures

Enjoy this curated list of ten of our favorite trails/walks around Whatcom County, paired with a nearby place to grab a treat! All trails are family-friendly, but before you plan your outing make sure you take a peek at the links for details on trails & opening hours of the stores and restaurants.
Happy exploring!

Take a walk around Lake Padden. Pop into Whole Foods on Lakeway Drive to pick up food for a picnic on the grass overlooking the peaceful lake.

Walk or bike the South Bay Trail from its start in downtown Bellingham (off of Railroad Avenue) to Boulevard Park. Be sure to stop at Woods Coffee when you arrive at Boulevard Park. For a longer trek- head across the Taylor Dock Boardwalk into Fairhaven!

Walk down to Teddy Bear Cove along the interurban trail. Park at the North Chuckanut Mountain Trailhead Lot. Grab some snacks at the small Haggen or lunch at Zane Burger in Fairhaven before you go.

Wander around the tall trees and winding paths of Berthusen Forest in Lynden. Afterward, stop at the Lynden Dutch Bakery for a slice of pie, a pastry, or a muffin.

Park near Starbuck's on Peace Portal Drive, then walk down to the gravel path at Blaine Marine Park along the waterfront. Be sure to go all the way to end, past the playpark, to the dock for a lovely view of Semi-ah-moo Resort. Start or end your trip at Edaleen's Dairy for ice cream or try The Rustic Fork for pizza! (They are located beside each other.)

Hike around Whatcom Falls Park. Then across the street be sure to try out Lafeen's for their famous donuts, and they have ice cream too!

Enjoy the views along Lake Whatcom via the Hertz Trail. When driving there- veer left up N. Shore Rd. and find the parking lot at the top of the hill. Grab some quick trail snacks at the Silver Beach Grocery or have a fancy meal at a local favorite, Fork at Agate Bay.

Take a walk along the paved trails on the Bellingham waterfront and Zuanich Point Park. While you're there try Kuru Kuru Sushi for some well-priced conveyer belt style sushi.

Take a stroll along the bluff at Point Whitehorn which leads down to a beautiful rocky beach. Stop at the famous C-Shop (summer season) for ice cream or lunch, or jump into Beachwood General Store before you hit the trail.

Take in the views and beaches at Semi-ah-moo. Park at the first lot on your left as you come down the hill, then walk the paved trail on the spit to the Marina Cafe for a coffee and sandwiches or there's also Packer's Kitchen & Bar at the resort.
